

Professional Engineering Procurement Services (PEPS) Division

Solicitation No. 601CT0000006208

Questions & Answers (Q&A)

Q&A Posting Date: 02/28/2025

Ref #	Provider Question	TxDOT Answer
1.	Will the existing General Engineering Consulting (GEC) continue to function and assist with advance utility coordination and right of way (ROW) acquisition, and will there be some overlap?	Yes, the existing GEC will continue to handle advanced utilities relocation agreements and ROW acquisition.
2.	Is there an organizational chart that shows the connection between Owner Verification Testing and Inspection (OVTI) and GEC?	No
3.	What are the work categories for OVTI?	The list of standard work categories will be provided in the RFP.
4.	When will the Preclusion list be posted?	Preclusion list will be uploaded into the Bonfire webpage along with the solicitation documents.